

DON'T FORGET THE DUST OF THE EARTH

At the Court House Saturday Night

Chadwick State Bank
"Your Bank—the people's Bank."

Do not fail to note the real "Money Saving Proposition" made by that sterling newspaper, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, elsewhere in this issue. In spite of the enormously increased cost of production, the Daily Globe-Democrat, (except Sunday, is offered to rural free delivery and star route patrons (yearly subscriptions only) at the remarkably low rate of $3 per year—or in complete clubs of three or more, at the net club rate of only $2.50 for each yearly subscription. The Daily Globe-Democrat, including Sunday, is offered for $5.50 per year, or in clubs of three or more at the net rate of $4.75 for each yearly subscription. This offer is also open to subscribers who receive their mail at postoffices where the Daily Globe-Democrat is not handled by local newsdealers. The regular price of the Daily Globe-Democrat, including Sunday, is now $7.50 per year; daily, without Sunday, $5 per year; Sunday only, $2.50 per year; weekly, issued twice a week, 20 cents a year. Again we urge you to read the "Money Saving Proposition" and send in your order at once. Address the Globe Printing Company, Publishers, St. Louis, Mo.

REMEMBER THE REVENUE OFFICER AT THE COURT HOUSE, FEBRUARY 11TH. Anyone in doubt about their income tax should not fail to see the Revenue Officer. Remember the income tax must be paid and it is up to the tax payer to see the Officer, not the Officer to look him up.

Keep the boys smiling; a "Smilage" book will do it.

Don't forget "Dust of the Earth" Saturday night.

What is a "Smilage" book—see account of the Patriotic Meeting that explains it; then get one for some soldier boy.

Keep Saturday evening, February 9, open for "The Dust of the Earth." You will not regret it if you do. You will if you don't.

The County Court began a session last Thursday with all the judges present. It promises to continue most if not all of this week.

Jacob M. Cummings of Taneyville was a pleasant caller at the Republican office Tuesday and advanced his subscription another year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fent of Bradleyville were Forsyth visitors Sunday. Mr. Fent went to Branson Monday on selective draft business.

Haven't you a soldier boy or a friend to send a "Smilage" book? If not, send to any soldier boy; he will fight better for Smilage for you.

The local board announce the enlistment of two more Taney county boys in the Signal Corps. They are John Franklin of Branson and Jesse Holliday of Hollister, the last named the son of Judge Holliday of the county court. They will leave Friday for Vancouver, British Columbia, Washington. J. W. A. Keithley of Walnut Shade was a Republican caller Wednesday and helped out our finances by a subscription.

Mrs. T. E. Hayes returned home from visiting her parents, Sunday. She expected to meet a brother while there who is in the army but he could not get leave at that time.

J. B. Hicks returned last Thursday night from a few weeks visit at Chattanooga, Tennessee, and vicinity. Mr. Hicks reports a fine visit, but plenty of cold weather even there.

John King of Cedar Creek was in Forsyth Monday and came to the Republican office to set his subscription ahead. Mr. King says the roads out that way are mostly ice, and are mighty hard traveling.

R. B. McManus and family expect to leave for Springfield the last of this week, where they intend to make their home. Mr. McManus has been in this county for nearly thirty years. We are very sorry to see them go.

J. W. Reese was elected commissioner for the Forsyth special road district, in place of C. H. Groom, whose term has expired. The commissioners for this road district now are: R. C. Ford, J. C. Parrish and J. W. Reese.

J. W. Johnson and W. S. Jones of Taneyville were Forsyth visitors Wednesday and made the Republican a friendly visit, setting their subscriptions ahead. Mr. Johnson is planning to go to Seattle, Washington, in the near future.

The Patriotic Meeting

The people of Forsyth gathered together Thursday evening last to have a patriotic meeting. The meeting was called to order by R. C. Ford, who stated the particular object of the meeting which was to get the people acquainted with the "Smilage" books which the Government is offering for sale. The books are in denominations of twenty five-cent coupons, and one hundred five-cent coupons, which are exchangeable for tickets at any of the Liberty theaters built at the army cantonments and camps. They sell for $1.00 and $5.00, and can be sent to any soldier desired, or sent for distribution to the great number who have no immediate friends to send them to him. Col. Ford was followed by Mrs. McCorky, Mr. Sharp, Mr. Wood, Mr. Bennett, Mr. Vanzandt, Mr. Hayes and Mr. Johnson. The tenor of the talk was the hearty endorsement of "Smilage" books and praise of the motives of the Government in endeavoring to give the boys relaxation and recreation along lines that will enable them to overcome the temptations of the leisure hours in the camp, and to give them attractions of greater moral benefit.

Also support of the Government in this time of war was emphasized, and destructive criticism of the Administration was soundly condemned. Among others, our Missouri Senators came in for a severe panning. This meeting was very good and its effect on the patriotic spirit of Forsyth cannot but be beneficial. It will more than ever serve to remind the people that we have a duty to our soldier boys and a determination to do this duty to the end. Several Smilage books were sold that night, and no doubt Forsyth will respond to this call in the same way that other calls have been met.

Last week we lost Robert Gideon, who has enlisted. With him went Guy Everett, who was in school here last year and several other Taney county boys. Of course we are glad for them. Let them have a share of this greatest honor and opportunity. Our school will look with pride and love upon the service flag which represents our boys. The honor roll includes these names: Frank Owen, Glendie Vanzandt, Paul Clements, Roy Smith, Guy Everett and Robert Gideon.

Nonchalant Newt

Secretary Baker's nonchalance in acknowledging his ignorance of many vital proceedings in the War Department was the most surprising feature of his testimony before the Senate committee on military affairs. Frequently running counter to testimony previously given by his subordinates, Mr. Baker sought to minimize the discrepancy as a matter of slight consequence. He acted, in short, like a man who is sure of holding his job no matter what may eventually happen.

Sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps

Report of sales of Thrift and War Savings Stamps for Forsyth up to January 31, was as follows:

Post office.....	$ 600.00
Taney County Bank..	785 67
Total .....	$1385 67

The report is very gratifying and shows Forsyth spirit and patriotism is right. It is hoped that the sale will continue with the same success as in the past.

The Forsyth postoffice shows more sales than all the other post offices in the county combined. However gratifying this may be to Forsyth, we hope the other points will gain in strength and give the whole of Taney county the measure of success in these sales that it deserves, and that all the county will unite to spend its money to overcome the common enemy.

The 16 cantonments built for the training of soldiers cost $134,000,000, with a net profit to contractors of 2.98 per cent.

If all the waste in a community of twelve thousand could be piled up in a city square you would find that the whole community would be shocked. —U. S. Food Administration.

There is no waste of food among the Allies. If you will read the English food reports you will find a woman was fined a hundred dollars and jailed for thirty days for throwing away half a rice pudding; that a baker who threw away two pies was sent to prison for six months. —U. S. Food Administration.
